Birding Opportunities at Big Stone Lake State Park

Big Stone Lake State Park is comprised of two units containing over 1000 acres that extend along the eastern shore of Big Stone Lake in western Minnesota. The Meadowbrook Unit contains large areas of grass and marsh plus savanna type woodlands. The lake itself is a splendid place to observe waterfowl migration. In the grasslands, a variety of sparrows and marsh birds can be found. Big Stone Lake Park is one of the best places in the state to see numbers of orchard orioles. The Bonanza Unit features large areas of grasslands on hillsides. With over 200 species recorded in the park, this area is a premier location for birding in Minnesota.

Season and Abundance Key

The seasons in the checklist are defined as follows:

Sp (Spring) = March, April, May

Su (Summer) = June, July

Fa (Fall) = August, September, October, November

Wi (Winter) = December, January, February

Abundance codes are defined as follows:

C = Common — present, relatively easy to find

U = Uncommon — observed, may be difficult to find

O = Occasional — may or may not be present in any year

R = Rare — has occurred at least once, may or may not be expected to recur

The names and taxonomic arrangement of species follows that of the Checklist of the Birds of Minnesota (January, 2001), prepared by the Minnesota Ornithological Records Committee.

This checklist contains the names of all birds that have been documented in the park by reliable observers. It was constructed by Robert B. Janssen and the MN DNR-Division of Parks & Recreation using observations of Mr. Janssen, park staff and other observers, as well as Minnesota Ornithologist's Union records and data contained in research reports. If you are interested in the specific sources used for a particular park, contact the Parks Division Resource Management Program Coordinator by telephone at 651-297-1158 or by mail at MNDNR-Parks, 500 Lafayette Road, Box 39 St. Paul, MN 55155-4039.

Equal opportunity to participate in and benefit from programs of the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources is available to all individuals regardless of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, age, sexual orientation, membership or activity in a local commission, or disability.
