Birding Opportunities at Forestville-Mystery Cave State Park

Forestville-Mystery Cave State Park contains large areas of mature forests. The presence of these extensive blocks of upland forest and adjoining forested stream valleys make the park of particular importance to many birds, including several special concern and regionally rare species. Canfield Creek provides excellent habitat for Acadian flycatchers and Louisiana waterthrush. A total of 32 species of neotropical migrant warblers and vireos have been recorded in the park. The winter wren and mourning warbler have been found in the park during June. It is suspected that these typically boreal forest species are rare breeders in the park.

Season and Abundance Key

The seasons in the checklist are defined as follows:

Sp (Spring) = March, April, May

Su (Summer) = June, July

Fa (Fall) = August, September, October, November

Wi (Winter) = December, January, February

Abundance codes are defined as follows:

C = Common — present, relatively easy to find

U = Uncommon — observed, may be difficult to find

O = Occasional — may or may not be present in any year

R = Rare — has occurred at least once, may or may not be expected to recur

The names and taxonomic arrangement of species follows that of the Checklist of the Birds of Minnesota (January, 2006), prepared by the Minnesota Ornithological Records Committee.

This checklist contains the names of all birds that have been documented in the park by reliable observers. It was constructed by Robert B. Janssen, Jerry Bonkoski, and the MN DNR-Division of Parks & Recreation using observations of the above, park staff and other observers, as well as Minnesota Ornithologist's Union records and data contained in research reports. If you are interested in the specific sources used for a particular park, contact the Parks Division Resource Management Program Coordinator by telephone at 651-259-5594 or by mail at MN DNR-Parks, 500 Lafayette Road, Box 39, St. Paul, MN 55155-4039.
