Birding Opportunities at Interstate State Park

This is a relatively small park (295 acres) located along a deep gorge of the scenic St. Croix River. Steep cliffs provide updrafts for raptors, most commonly turkey vultures and bald eagles. Northern rough-winged swallows are common along the river and use the cliffs as nesting sites. The small streams that flow down to the river from the uplands provide habitat for the Louisiana waterthrush. The west edge of the park contains a mixture of open grassy areas with large tracts of deciduous woods providing habitat for sparrows, thrushes, vireos and flycatchers.

Season and Abundance Key

The seasons in the checklist are defined as follows:

Sp (Spring) = March, April, May

Su (Summer) = June, July

Fa (Fall) = August, September, October, November

Wi (Winter) = December, January, February

Abundance codes are defined as follows:

C = Common — present, relatively easy to find

U = Uncommon — observed, may be difficult to find

O = Occasional — may or may not be present in any year

R = Rare — has occurred at least once, may or may not be expected to recur

The names and taxonomic arrangement of species follows that of the Checklist of the Birds of Minnesota (January, 2001), prepared by the Minnesota Ornithological Records Committee.

This checklist contains the names of all birds that have been documented in the park by reliable observers. It was constructed by Robert B. Janssen and the MN DNR-Division of Parks & Recreation using observations of Mr. Janssen, park staff and other observers, as well as Minnesota Ornithologist's Union records and data contained in research reports. If you are interested in the specific sources used for a particular park, contact the Parks Division Resource Management Program Coordinator by telephone at 651-297-1158 or by mail at MNDNR-Parks, 500 Lafayette Road, Box 39 St. Paul, MN 55155-4039.
