Birding Opportunities at Itasca State Park

Itasca's extensive stands of boreal forests with mixed hardwoods provide excellent habitat for many northern species such as crossbills, gray jays, finches, thrushes, black-backed woodpeckers, and warblers. Over 20 species of warblers nest in the park. Itasca has been a site for rarities such as Minnesota's second record of a magnificent hummingbird, a second record for the magnificent frigatebird and a third record for Williamson's sapsucker. In addition, an out-of-range parasitic jaeger, lark bunting and prothonotary warbler have been recorded. The 222 species recorded in the park and the large potential breeding list confirms Itasca State Park as one of the premier birding areas in Minnesota.

Season and Abundance Key

The seasons in the checklist are defined as follows:

Sp (Spring) = March, April, May

Su (Summer) = June, July

Fa (Fall) = August, September, October, November

Wi (Winter) = December, January, February

Abundance codes are defined as follows:

C = Common — present, relatively easy to find

U = Uncommon — observed, may be difficult to find

O = Occasional — may or may not be present in any year

R = Rare — has occurred at least once, may or may not be expected to recur

The names and taxonomic arrangement of species follows that of the Checklist of the Birds of Minnesota (January, 2001), prepared by the Minnesota Ornithological Records Committee.

This checklist contains the names of all birds that have been documented in the park by reliable observers. It was constructed by Robert B. Janssen and the MN DNR-Division of Parks & Recreation using observations of Mr. Janssen, park staff and other observers, as well as Minnesota Ornithologist's Union records and data contained in research reports. If you are interested in the specific sources used for a particular park, contact the Parks Division Resource Management Program Coordinator by telephone at 651-297-1158 or by mail at MNDNR-Parks, 500 Lafayette Road, Box 39 St. Paul, MN 55155-4039.
