

STAY OVERNIGHT

Minnesota state parks and recreation areas offer a surprising variety of overnight accommodations, including:

CAMPSITES are $12-$24/night at most campgrounds. For those in need of plug-ins, there are hundreds of 50-amp electrical sites.

CAMPER CABINS ($45-$50/night) sleep up to six people. Cook your meals over the outdoor fire ring or heat them up in a slow cooker indoors. Bunk beds and mattresses are provided—just bring your own sleeping bags.

FULLY FURNISHED CABINS can be found at Itasca, Tettegouche, St. Croix and Scenic state parks. Cost and capacity vary.

GUESTHOUSES at Bear Head Lake, St. Croix, Savanna Portage and Wild River state parks ($105-$215/night) are fully furnished, open year-round and can accommodate up to 15 people.

FOUR-SEASON SUITES and HISTORIC DOUGLAS LODGE at Itasca State Park—Historic Douglas Lodge offers charming guest rooms for $75-$127/night and a full-service restaurant. The Four-season Suites ($99-$138/night) come with two queen-size beds, kitchenettes, phones and even cable TV.

TIPIS—Experience a bit of history and tradition by staying in one of two tipis ($30/night) at Upper Sioux Agency State Park.
