ABOUT THE PARK

Lake Maria State Park protects almost 1,600 acres of rolling wooded terrain dotted with small lakes and woodland marshes. Established in 1963, the park offers quiet outdoor experiences to photographers, birdwatchers, backpackers, hikers and anyone interested in beauty and solitude. Hike trails and you will see Big Woods vegetation with remnants of old-growth oak, maple and basswood trees. The park's diverse habitat is home to many animals including the threatened Blandings turtle and over 200 resident and migrant bird species.

Wildlife abounds at the park.

TRAIL HIGHLIGHTS

Anderson Loop Trail — 3-mile loop
Hilly • Packed dirt
Step through prairie grasslands and enjoy the view at the Anderson Hill Lookout. Return to the trail center through a shaded oak and maple forest.

Big Woods Loop — 5.5-mile loop
Hilly • Packed dirt
This lovely trail offers variety during any season. Explore lookouts, old-growth forest, ponds, marshes and rolling terrain.

Bjorkland Trail (Hiking Club Trail) — 2-mile loop
Mostly flat • Packed dirt
This popular trail leads you through meadows and forest with a rest stop at Bjorkland Lake.

Kettle Kame Trail — 1.75-mile loop
Hilly • Packed dirt
The most rugged trail in the park follows rolling hills and ponds that highlight a kettle and kame landscape carved by glaciers. Watch for wildlife near the lakes and old-growth forest.
