ABOUT THE TRAIL

Several segments of the Gitchi-Gami State Trail have been completed, totaling over 36 miles. When complete, it will offer 86 paved miles for non-motorized use and connect Two Harbors to Grand Marais along the North Shore of Lake Superior. This trail is also part of the U.S. Bicycle Route 41/North Star Route.

Two Harbors - .9 miles

This segment starts at the east end of the city, running parallel along Hwy 61 and ending at a private resort.

Silver Creek Cliff - 1 mile, round-trip

This segment follows the old Scenic Highway 61 and bypasses the Silver Creek Cliff tunnel. It offers 4,000 feet of continuous Lake Superior views.

Gooseberry Falls State Park to Silver Bay - 17.3 miles

This is the longest continuous trail segment, taking you through both urban and natural environments. It also has steep hills and curves that can be challenging for recreational use.

The segment begins at Gooseberry Falls State Park and continues northeast through Iona's Beach Scientific and Natural Area and Split Rock Lighthouse State Park before entering Beaver Bay and Silver Bay. There are numerous rest stops along the way, as well as access to camping and fishing through the state parks.

Schroeder to Lutsen - 12.8 miles

This segment begins at the rest area in Schroeder. It travels inland of Highway 61 to the Temperance River State Park gorge and waterfall, offers a scenic view of Carlton Peak and then continues northeast to Tofte.

At Tofte Bayview Drive the trail crosses Highway 61 back to the lake side. There, you'll find exceptional views of Lake Superior's vast waters and shoreline.

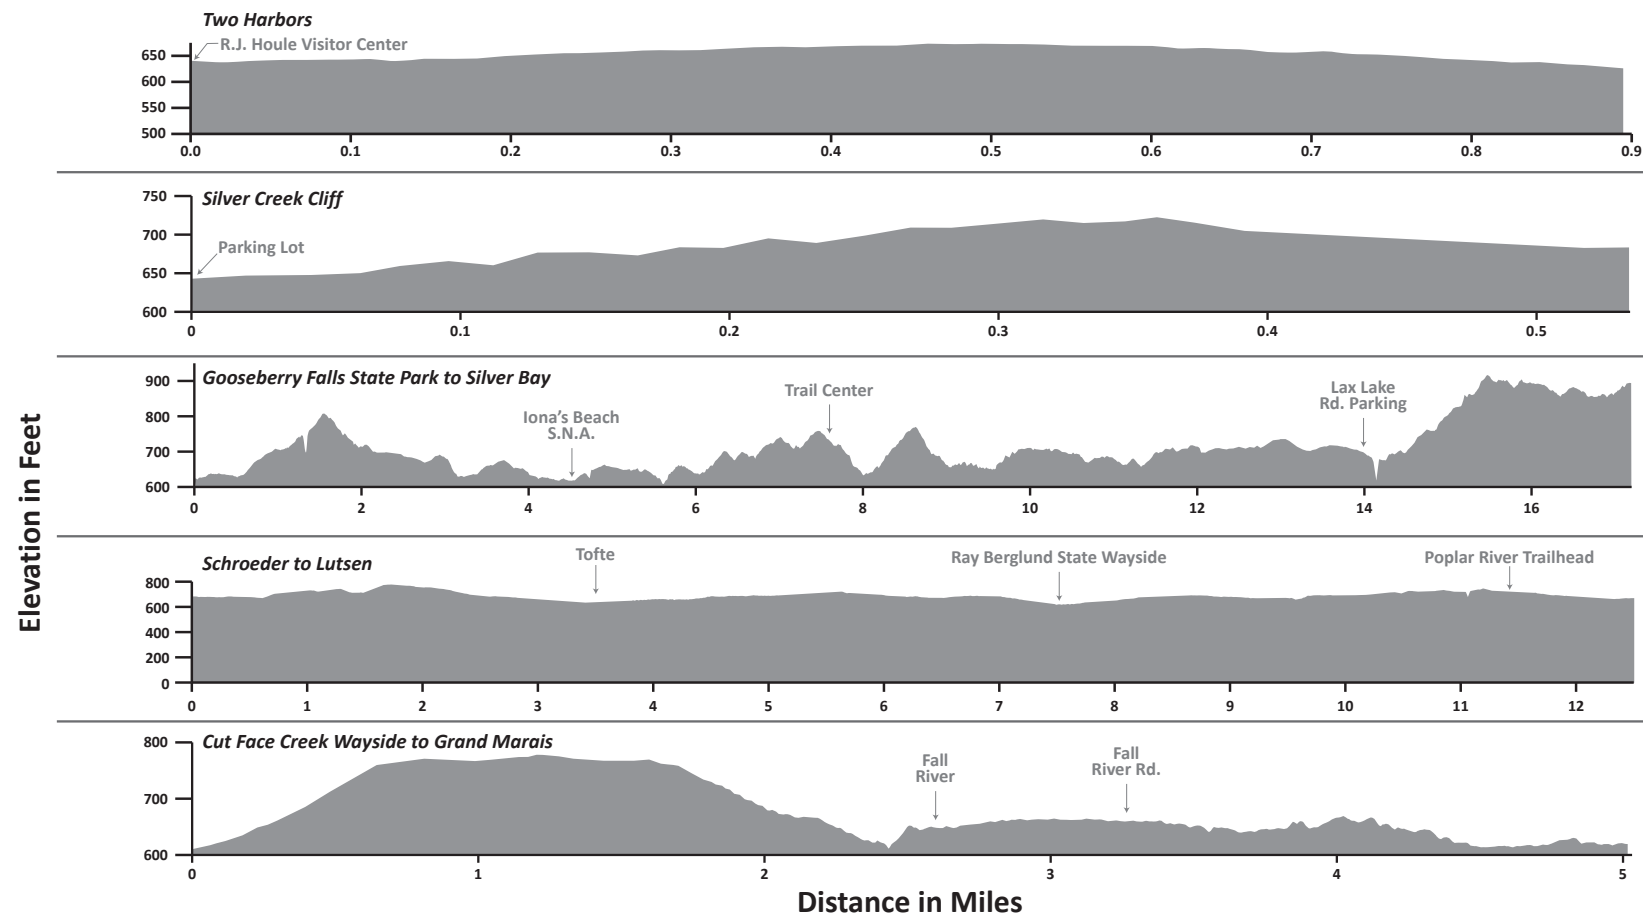

The nearby Ray Berglund State Wayside offers a rest area between the communities of Tofte and Lutsen. This wayside also features its own trail connection to the Onion River Trail, a short and rustic hiking trail.

As the state trail continues to Lutsen, it crosses an underpass below Highway 61 to the inland side and offers a more quiet ride. The trail currently ends 0.3 miles west of Lutsen.

Cut Face Creek Wayside to Grand Marais - 5.1 miles

This segment begins at 3rd Avenue and joins the Grand Marais Corridor Trail to the east, traveling to the Cut Face Creek State Wayside and Cascade River State Park.
