

2014 Deer Hunting and Licensing Options

STEP 1. From the map, select the season (Statewide A or late southeast 3B) and deer area you plan to hunt.

STEP 2. From the flow chart below, select a license type (Archery, Firearm, Muzzleloader). Information on either-sex permits and bag limits for each deer area are listed in the colored boxes below. Youth hunters, landowners, and hunters with disabilities should refer to the regulations book for specific information.

If you plan to hunt in a:

Bucks-only Deer Area (YELLOW): Any licensed hunter (including those with archery and youth licenses or disability permits) may tag one legal buck with their base license. Without exception, no antlerless deer may be taken in any bucks-only area. If you take a deer in a bucks-only area, you cannot take another deer in either another bucks-only, lottery or hunter choice area. Important: Bonus permits are not valid in bucks-only permit areas, regardless of weapon type.

Lottery Deer Area (BLUE): Hunters interested in hunting antlerless deer during either the firearm or muzzleloader season must apply for an either-sex permit through the lottery process. The lottery deadline is Thurs, Sept. 4, 2014, and lottery winners will receive permits via U.S. mail. Regular firearm and muzzleloader hunters must apply for an either-sex permit if they want to hunt antlerless deer. If successful, the either-sex permit will be valid during either the firearm or muzzleloader season; however, you MUST have a valid license for that season. Otherwise, those license holders will be restricted to bucks only. Archery hunters can take a deer of either sex without applying for an either-sex permit. If you take a deer in a lottery area, you cannot take another deer in either another bucks-only, lottery or hunter choice area. Important: Bonus permits are not valid in lottery permit areas, regardless of weapon type.

Hunter Choice Deer Area (BROWN): All adult hunters, including archery, firearm, muzzleloader, and disabled permittees can take 1 either-sex deer. If you take a deer in a hunter choice area, you cannot take another deer in either another bucks-only, lottery or hunter choice area. Important: Bonus permits are not valid in hunter choice deer areas, regardless of weapon type.

Managed Deer Area (RED): Regular archery, firearm, and muzzleloader hunters may tag one deer of either sex with their base license. A total of 2 deer can be taken in managed areas, regardless of license type. Hunters can mix and match licenses and bonus permits so long as they do not exceed 2 deer total per year, no matter how many managed areas they hunt.

Intensive Deer Area (GREEN): Regular archery, firearm, and muzzleloader hunters may tag one deer of either sex with their base license. A total of 5 deer can be taken in intensive areas. Hunters can mix and match licenses and bonus permits so long as they do not exceed 5 deer total per year.

Unlimited Antlerless Area (PURPLE): Regular archery, firearm, and muzzleloader hunters may tag one deer of either sex with their base license. There is no limit to the number of antlerless deer that may be taken in this metro deer management area. Hunters can mix and match licenses and bonus permits.

STEP 3. Purchase your license and enter lottery at one of more than 1,500 ELS vendors located across the state. You may also purchase your license over the internet at www.mndnr.gov or by phone at 888-665-4236. The deadline for antlerless lottery is Thursday, September 4, 2014.

IMPORTANT: This is a condensed guide to aid hunters in purchasing a deer license. Please refer to the 2014 regulations book and state statutes and rules for complete information and more detailed maps.
