Birding Opportunities at Whitewater State Park

Whitewater State Park is one of the most popular birding parks in southeastern Minnesota. The park contains a wide variety of habitat, including towering bluffs, woodlands, marshes, riparian and an assortment of other wetlands. The bluffs are especially good for viewing raptors such as hawks and eagles. The Whitewater Wildlife Management Area surrounding the park provides excellent habitat, as do the woodlands along the Whitewater River. A total of 35 species of migrant neotropical warblers and vireos have been recorded in the park. The bottomlands of the nearby Mississippi River also provide excellent birding opportunities.

Season and Abundance Key

The seasons in the checklist are defined as follows:

Sp (Spring) = March, April, May

Su (Summer) = June, July

Fa (Fall) = August, September, October, November

Wi (Winter) = December, January, February

Abundance codes are defined as follows:

C = Common — present, relatively easy to find

U = Uncommon — observed, may be difficult to find

O = Occasional — may or may not be present in any year

R = Rare — has occurred at least once, may or may not be expected to recur

The names and taxonomic arrangement of species follows that of the Checklist of the Birds of Minnesota (January, 2001), prepared by the Minnesota Ornithological Records Committee.

This checklist contains the names of all birds that have been documented in the park by reliable observers. It was constructed by Robert B. Janssen and the MN DNR-Division of Parks & Recreation using observations of Mr. Janssen, park staff and other observers, as well as Minnesota Ornithologist's Union records and data contained in research reports. If you are interested in the specific sources used for a particular park, contact the Parks Division Resource Management Program Coordinator by telephone at 651-297-1158 or by mail at MNDNR-Parks, 500 Lafayette Road, Box 39 St. Paul, MN 55155-4039.
