

Invasive Jumping Worms

Jumping worms are not native to Minnesota and damage soils and plants.

Learn more at:
mndnr.gov/qr/jumping-worms

Key to ID: Jumping worms have 14-15 segments between their mouth and clitellum (the thick band around the body on mature earthworms).