

List of Plan Contributors

The 2025 Minnesota Wildlife Action Plan revision would not have been possible without the help of hundreds of colleagues who contributed via survey and workshop participation, expertise for species conservation status assessments, content generation and review through volunteer teams, editing, and more. We appreciate and value the time and perspectives shared by the 327 people representing 64 organizations listed below.

The following list of contributors represents a variety of organizations, institutions, agencies, and Tribal governments, including but not limited to: 1854 Treaty Authority, American Bird Conservancy, Anoka Conservation District, Bell Museum, Belwin Conservancy, Bethany Lutheran College, Bluebird Program of Minnesota, Carpenter St. Croix Valley Nature Center, Central Lakes College, City of Eden Prairie Parks and Recreation, Concordia College, Daguna Consulting, Dodge Nature Center, Ducks Unlimited, Friends of Sax-Zim Bog, Great River Greening, Hamline University, Hawk Ridge Bird Observatory, Hillsdale College, Indiana University Columbus, International Owl Center, International Wolf Center, Isanti Soil & Water Conservation District, Land of Lakes Bird Alliance, Land Stewardship Project, Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe, LegacyWorks Group, Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board, Minnesota Board of Water & Soil Resources, Minnesota Department of Military Affairs, Minnesota Department of Natural Resources, Minnesota Department of Transportation, Minnesota Herpetological Society, Minnesota IT Services, Minnesota Land Trust, Minnesota Pollution Control Agency, Minnesota Zoo, Monarch Joint Venture, Morrison Soil & Water Conservation District, National Audubon Society, National Wild Turkey Federation, Pheasants Forever, Ramsey County Parks and Recreation, Renville Soil & Water Conservation District, Shakopee Mdewakanton Sioux Community, Sherburne Soil & Water Conservation District, Sugarloaf: The North Shore Stewardship Association, The Nature Conservancy, Three Rivers Park District, Trust for Public Land, U.S. Department of Agriculture, U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service, U.S. Forest Service, U.S. Geological Survey, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, University of Minnesota, University of Minnesota Bee Lab, University of Minnesota Extension, University of Minnesota Landscape Arboretum, University of Minnesota Raptor Center, Urban Bird Collective, Wakan Tipi Awanyankapi, Washington Conservation District, Wolf Ridge Environmental Learning Center, and Xerces Society for Invertebrate Conservation.
