ABOUT THE TRAIL

The Blazing Star State Trail runs 8.1, paved miles from Frank Hall Park in the city of Albert Lea, through Myre-Big Island State Park, to Main Street in the city of Hayward. It also connects to Albert Lea's city trail system, providing extra paved miles of riding opportunity.

When complete, the Blazing Star State Trail will run about 20 miles and connect the city of Albert Lea to the city of Austin and the Shooting Star State Trail, providing another 29 miles of paved trail.

Enjoy views of rural landscapes along the trail. Travel through Myre-Big Island State Park for diverse natural environments like wetlands, oak savanna, big woods and prairie. Visit during spring or fall migration for excellent birding opportunities.

Blazing star flowers are prevalent along the trail
