ABOUT THE TRAIL

The 1.4 mile Camp Ripley/Veterans State Trail connects Charles A. Lindbergh State Park and Mill Park in the City of Little Falls. The paved trail follows the west side of the Mississippi River and aligns with the Mississippi River Trail (MRT). In the summer, the developed trail is popular for hiking, bicycling and in-line skating.

As one of the oldest towns in Minnesota, established in 1848, Little Falls offers visitors an experience rich in history and culture. Draws of the area include festivals, concerts, art exhibits, museums, attractions, outdoor recreation, dining and shopping experiences.

Charles A. Weyerhaeuser Memorial Museum and Charles Lindbergh House and Museum are popular attractions located near Charles A. Lindbergh State Park.
