

Heavy Rain in Metropolitan Area June 24-25, 2003

State Climatology Office - DNR Waters

Heavy rains fell during the evening hours of Tuesday, June 24 and into the early morning of Wednesday, June 25, 2003. 24-hour totals in excess of six inches were reported in western Renville, eastern Wright, southern Sherburne, central Hennepin, and central Chisago counties. 4.36 inches in four hours was measured in Maplewood. The largest 24-hour total was 8.19 inches in Elk River of Sherburne County. Street flooding was reported in the metro area with some roads under several feet of water.

Some of the larger rainfall totals in the metropolitan area for June 24-25 include:

Elk River - 8.19"
Plymouth - 6.68"
Brooklyn Park - 6.50"
Brooklyn Center - 6.00"
Monticello - 7.50"
downtown Mpls. - 5.90"
Buffalo - 6.25"
New Hope - 5.83"
Rockford - 4.50"
Robbinsdale - 5.75"
Cokato - 4.19"
south Mpls. - 5.55"
St. Louis Park - 5.28"
Maple Grove - 5.14"
Fridley - 5.32"
Corcoran - 5.00"
Hassan - 4.80"
Champlin - 4.71"
St. Paul midway - 4.98"
Golden Valley - 4.70"
St. Paul (Como) - 4.65"
Dayton - 4.60"
Maplewood - 4.59"
Little Canada - 4.55"
Falcon Heights - 4.52"
North Branch - 6.00"
St. Paul (Holman) - 4.31"
Taylors Falls - 4.00"
Vadnais Heights - 4.17"
White Bear Lake - 4.10"
Shoreview - 4.07"
Scandia - 4.71"
Forest Lake - 4.01"