There are 6 accessible sites along a 1/4 mile stretch of Duschee Creek located between the DNR Laneboro Area Fisheries Office and the State Fish Hatchery. Sites are along a gravel road and offer good trout fishing opportunities. Several areas offer pullout spots that allow for fishing near under cut banks.

Fig. 1 - The approach is compact dirt and at a very slight angle. It offers fishing over under cut banks.

Fig. 2 - The approach is compact dirt and mostly level. It offers fishing over under cut banks.

Fig. 3 - Some sites offer a pull out on compact dirt, and some shade part of the day.

Fig. 4 - Some sites are a little less developed but can still offer some accessibility. Ground is compact.
